AIMS

The series seeks to bring together leading scholars, practitioners and members of the judiciary in Queensland and from abroad, with a view to:

- providing a forum for the critical analysis and discussion of current legal issues
- bringing to bear upon those issues the different perspectives offered by leading members of the academy, the profession and the judiciary
- forging stronger links between academic and practising lawyers in Queensland

TIME

Registration: 5.00 pm – 5.15 pm

Seminar: 5.15 pm – 6.45 pm followed by refreshments

FORMAT

Each seminar will comprise a chairman, speaker and commentator. The chairman will introduce the speaker and commentator. A paper will then be presented by a leading practising or academic lawyer. This will be followed either by a commentary or additional, complementary paper. The lecture will be available in advance on www.law.uq.edu.au/current-legal-issues-series, a website hosted by The University of Queensland.

VENUE

The Banco Court, Supreme Court of Queensland, Queen Elizabeth II Courts of Law, 415 George Street, Brisbane. Seminars will be followed by a drinks reception in the foyer.

CPD

The series is accredited for CPD purposes by the Bar Association of Queensland, 1.5 CPD points each seminar in the Substantive Law category will apply.

PARTICIPANTS

The series in 2016 is a collaboration between The University of Queensland, the Bar Association of Queensland, Queensland University of Technology and the Supreme Court Library Queensland.
