Current Legal Issues Seminar Series 2010

Current Legal Issues is a new series of seminars which commenced in 2009. The series seeks to bring together leading scholars, practitioners and members of the Judiciary in Queensland and from abroad, with a view to

- providing a forum for the critical analysis and discussion of current legal issues;
- bringing to bear upon those issues the different perspectives offered by leading members of the Academy, profession and Judiciary;
- forging stronger links between academic and practising lawyers in Queensland.

Format:

Each seminar will comprise a chair, speaker, and commentator. The chair will introduce the speaker and commentator. A paper will then be presented by a leading practising or academic lawyer, and will be subject to a brief, expert commentary. Subsequent debate and contributions from the floor will be facilitated by the chair. Seminar papers will be available in advance at www.law.uq.edu.au/current-legal-issues-series, a website hosted by the University of Queensland.

Time:

5.30pm – 7.00pm.

Refreshments to follow in the Rare Books Precinct.

Venue:

The Banco Court, Supreme Court of Queensland, Law Courts Complex, George Street, Brisbane.

CPD:

The series has been accredited for CPD purposes by the Queensland Bar Association. Reciprocal recognition arrangements exist between the Bar Associations of Queensland, New South Wales and Victoria. Participants will accrue 1.5 CPD points per seminar in the unallocated strand.

Participants:

The 2010 series is a collaboration between the University of Queensland, the Bar Association of Queensland and Queensland University of Technology. Attendance is on a RSVP basis and restricted to numbers appropriate to a seminar-style format. There is no charge for attendance.

Teleconference:

BAQ regional members can access the seminar series by pre-arranged teleconference.
