WELCOME

Welcome to the 13th meeting of the International Association of Genocide Scholars, held at the St Lucia campus of the University of Queensland, 9–13 July 2017.

We pay our respects to the traditional owners of the land on which this event is taking place, and respectfully acknowledge Elders past, present and emerging. In particular, we pay our respects to the Jagara nation, whose lands lie south of the Brisbane river, and to the Turrbal nation, whose lands lie north of the Brisbane river.

The conference theme is justice and the prevention of genocide. This year's conference brings together a broad range of papers, many of which revisit the two core components of the UN Convention: justice for acts of genocide, and prevention of future genocides.

We welcome survivors, academics, professionals, students, artists and members of the community to this year's conference and we look forward to engaging in open debate and the respectful exchange of ideas. And we welcome reflection on our collective history of genocide, so that we may work together, as a community, to uphold the promise of never again.

Dr Melanie O'Brien and Dr Annie Pohlman
Co-convenors

THANK YOU

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the team of professional staff at the TC Beirne School of Law for their unflagging support, and to our dedicated TCB Law and Asia Pacific Centre for the Responsibility to Protect student volunteers, Ameera Ismail, Nicola Farquhar, and Anna John.

We also wish to thank the members of the Australia-based organising committee:

Ms Arna Chancellor, Manager of the Asia Pacific Centre for the Responsibility to Protect;

Dr Kirril Shields, School of Communication and Arts, the University of Queensland;

Dr Phil Orchard, Senior Lecturer in Peace and Conflict Studies and International Relations, Research Director of the Asia Pacific Centre for the Responsibility to Protect;

Dr Deborah Mayersen, University of Wollongong; and

Associate Professor Andrew Bonnell, School of Historical and Philosophical Inquiry, the University of Queensland.

Lastly, thank you to all the volunteers for their enthusiastic support!

Call for Papers

Justice and the Prevention of Genocide

(Special issue to be published in 2018)

The editors of Genocide Studies and Prevention: An International Journal are presently soliciting papers for an upcoming special issue of the journal on the theme of Justice and the Prevention of Genocide.

This special issue follows the IAGS2017 conference theme and revisits the two core components of the Convention: justice for acts of genocide and prevention of future genocides. The editors welcome the submission of manuscripts in any of the categories below:

- Application of international and domestic law for justice, accountability and prevention
- Theories and methods of prevention of genocide and mass atrocities
- Indigenous experiences of and responses to genocide, in particular Australian Aborigines and Torres Strait Islanders
- Cases of genocidal violence in the Asia Pacific region
- Sexual and gender-based violence
- Genocide and disability
- Justice and prevention in the context of refugees of genocide
- Representations of genocide in culture, art and museum studies
- Genocide education
- Genocide and human rights

Papers need to be formatted according to GSP guidelines and submitted electronically through the GSP website via the "Submit Article" link at <http://scholarcommons.usf.edu/gsp/>.

Submissions must be received by 31 October 2017. Queries: Dr. Melanie O'Brien, guest editor for the special edition at mobrien@genocidescholars.org.

THANK YOU AUSTRALIA

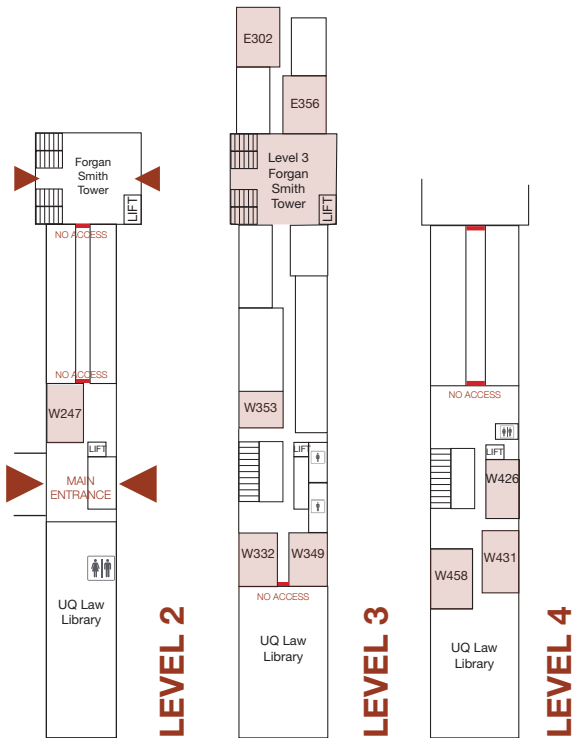

WE THANK AUSTRALIA FOR:

- SENDING ANZAC SOLDIERS TO HELP SAVE ARMENIAN, ASSYRIAN AND GREEK VICTIMS OF GENOCIDE
- FOR HELPING RESETTLE HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF GREEK REFUGEES, CLOTHING THEM AND FEEDING THEM.
- FOR GIVING THE SILENCED A VOICE AND DEMANDING JUSTICE FOR VICTIMS OF GENOCIDE.

WE ONLY ASK THAT AUSTRALIA TODAY HONOUR THEIR ANCESTORS
BY DOING THE SAME.
