

BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU PAY FOR.

NEED A HAND? In 2005, Mr C travelled to China to recruit five workers for his printing business in Melbourne. Once in Australia, the men were forced to discharge a grossly inflated debt of $10,000 that supposedly reflected the cost of their travel and visa applications. A court later found that the men were underpaid by $100,000:

Inspector Robert John Hartle v Aprint (Aust) Pty Ltd & Anor [2007] FMCA 1547 .

HUMAN TRAFFICKING ALWAYS READ THE FINEPRINT

www.law.uq.edu.au/humantrafficking